This time of the year it is always better to give than to receive. DIFS staff took that to heart from donating their time to donating gifts to a family in need.

On December 18th, the Bureau of Fire, Arson & Explosives Investigations' Daytona Beach Office partnered with the 7th Circuit Guardian Ad Litem to take six children to a local Walmart to "Shop with a Cop". BFAEI detectives were paired with each child to be their personal shopping partner. The children were then able to spend some one on one time with our detectives, learn what we do and shop for some new toys. The event was a great success, but the best gift of all were the smiles on the children's faces.

On December 21st, the DIFS' Tallahassee Regional Staff adopted a local family in need and, much like Santa and his elves, DIFS Staff loaded up their "sleigh" with wrapped presents to deliver under a new tree. The family was extremely grateful and moved by the outpouring of support that the DIFS team showed.
