Floridians,

Every year, Thanksgiving is a time to come together with our families and friends. It's a time for us to remember what is most important. Many this year, including my family, will give thanks for the work of so many who came together to help after Hurricane Michael. We thank our first responders, our military, and our community who rallied together during a devastating time. Thank you to everyone who donated supplies, time, and money to help the Panhandle recover. Thank you, thank you, thank you.

While you gather together this Thanksgiving, take time to say a special thank you to the brave men and women who are protecting our nation. They are the reason we can come together to celebrate.

Happy Thanksgiving and may the joy of the holidays be with you throughout the year.

Sincerely,

Jimmy Patronis
Chief Financial Officer
State of Florida
