

CFO Jimmy Patronis's 2022 "Born Free" Legislative Victories

$10 MILLION IN FUNDING FOR URBAN SEARCH AND RESCUE TEAMS

Following the tragic Champlain Towers South condo collapse in Surfside, CFO and State Fire Marshal Jimmy Patronis made it his top priority to advocate for Florida's Urban Search and Rescue (US&R) Teams for funding and resources to support Florida's eight dedicated task forces. The US&R teams work statewide for all communities during disasters. The funds include $3.9 million for eight US&R task forces and 40 Light Technical Rescue Teams. The funds will provide for specialized equipment, training and exercises. Additionally, $5.8 million will be invested in tractors, cargo trailers, trucks, forklifts, and utility vehicles to support life-saving US&R missions.

PROTECTING HOMES FROM STORMS & FIGHTING PREMIUM INCREASES

CFO Jimmy Patronis fought for a provision in the 2022 legislative Tax Package, which provides tax relief to Florida families to 'harden their homes' against storms. This two-year tax exemption for impact-resistant windows, doors and garage doors will not only protect Floridians' most valuable assets, but also combat insurance premium increases.

- House Bill 7071 – (Representative Payne) Taxation

PROTECTING AND EMPOWERING FLORIDA CONSUMERS

CFO Jimmy Patronis championed legislation in the 2022 session that empowers Florida policyholders by creating digital insurance cards that will communicate with the digital drivers' license. The legislation mandates that digital insurance cards be operational by 2023 on Florida roadways to create value for Florida drivers and reduce insurance fraud.

CFO Patronis also championed legislation in the 2022 session that combats fraudulent and annoying telemarketing calls by requiring licensed warranty agencies and agents to identify their full business name and license number immediately - cracking down on the amount of illegitimate telemarketing calls.

The CFO fought to increase penalties on unlicensed public adjusters who break the law. In certain instances, following a storm, policyholders may contract their own adjusters to assess damage. Too often, a bad adjuster that's unlicensed will take their money and run or lock the policyholder into a bad contract where they sign their rights away.

- Senate Bill 1292 - (Senator Gruters) Fraud Prevention
- House Bill 749 - (Representative Clemons) Fraud Prevention

CFO Patronis supported legislation in the 2022 session that transfers Florida Hurricane Catastrophe Fund coverage for private market insurers who take on certain policies and limits the growth of policies covered by Citizens Property Insurance Corporation, which reduces the cost of insurance for certain Florida consumers.

- House Bill 695 – (Representative Stevenson) Property Insurer Reimbursements

CANCEL CULTURE WE CAN GET BEHIND

CFO Patronis championed legislation in the 2022 session that forces big corporations to allow Floridians to easily cancel subscriptions without forcing consumers to hop through a bunch of hoops. The practice called "Negative Option Billing" is a trick by businesses to make it too difficult for consumers to cancel a subscription service that they may not even know they signed up for. This legislation will help consumers cancel a subscription service in the same manner they signed up for it, through a mobile app, by email, phone or written.

- Senate Bill 1292 - (Senator Gruters) Fraud Prevention
- House Bill 749 - (Representative Clemons) Fraud Prevention

HOLDING INSURANCE BUSINESSES ACCOUNTABLE TO POLICY HOLDERS

The CFO championed legislation in the 2022 session that mandates insurance agencies to proactively disclose to policyholders that they're closing their business. This information will be important to policyholders as they make decisions for the future.

This CFO priority also forces public adjusters to be transparent with policyholders and make separate agreements if they want to capture certain reimbursements from the insurer that the policyholder would normally get. Certain public adjuster contracts allow public adjusters to extract a fee from consumers for obtaining benefits they would have gotten without hiring the public adjuster.

- House Bill 31 - (Representative Busatta Cabrera) Firefighter Inquiries and Investigations
