

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE SECOND JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR LEON COUNTY, FLORIDA

IN RE: The Receivership of
NORTHERN CAPITAL INSURANCE COMPANY, a Florida corporation authorized to transact an insurance business in Florida

CASE NO.: 2010- 1230

CONSENT ORDER APPOINTING THE FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL SERVICES AS RECEIVER FOR PURPOSES OF REHABILITATION, INJUNCTION, AND NOTICE OF AUTOMATIC STAY

THIS CAUSE was considered on the Department of Financial Services' (hereinafter the "Department") Petition for an Order appointing the Department as Receiver for purposes of Rehabilitation of NORTHERN CAPITAL INSURANCE COMPANY, (hereinafter the "Respondent"). The Court, having reviewed the pleadings of record, and otherwise being fully informed in the premises finds that:

1. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to Section 631.021(1), Florida Statutes, and venue is proper pursuant to Section 631.021(2), Florida Statutes.

2. Respondent is a corporation authorized pursuant to the Florida Insurance Code to transact business in the state of Florida as a domestic property and casualty insurer. Respondent's principal place of business is at 7200 Corporate Center Drive, Suite 505, Miami, FL 33126.

3. Section 631.021(3), Florida Statutes, provides that a delinquency proceeding pursuant to Chapter 631, Florida Statutes, constitutes the sole and exclusive method of liquidating, rehabilitating, reorganizing, or conserving an insurer. Further, Section 631.025(2), Florida Statutes, authorizes the Department to initiate delinquency proceedings against any insurer if the statutory grounds are present as to that insurer.

4. Section 631.051(11), Florida Statutes, authorizes the Department to apply to this Court for an order directing it to rehabilitate a domestic insurer upon the ground that the insurer has consented to such an order through a majority of its directors, stockholders, members, or subscribers. Respondent has consented to the appointment of the Department as Receiver for purposes of rehabilitation. It is in the best interests of Respondent and its creditors and insureds that the relief requested in the petition be granted.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED AND ADJUDGED as follows:

5. The Department of Financial Services of the State of Florida is appointed Receiver of Respondent for purposes of rehabilitation and that the Receiver is authorized and directed to:

A. Conduct the business of Respondent and take all steps, as the Court may direct, toward the removal of the causes and conditions which have made the order of rehabilitation necessary and to take such further action, as the Receiver deems necessary or appropriate, to reform and revitalize the Respondent.

B. Take immediate possession of all the property, assets, and estate, and all other property of every kind whatsoever and wherever located, belonging to Respondent, pursuant to Sections 631.111 and 631.141, Florida Statutes, including but not limited to: offices maintained by Respondent, rights of action, books, papers, evidences of debt, bank accounts, savings accounts, certificates of deposit, stocks, bonds, debentures and other securities, mortgages, furniture, fixtures, office supplies and equipment, wherever situate and however titled, whether in the possession of Respondent or its officers, directors, shareholders, trustees, employees, consultants, attorneys, agents or affiliates and all real property of Respondent, wherever situated, whether in the possession of Respondent or its officers, directors, shareholders, trustees, employees, consultants, attorneys, agents or affiliates.

C. Employ and authorize the compensation of legal counsel, actuaries, accountants, clerks, consultants and such assistants as it deems necessary, purchase or lease personal or real property as it deems necessary, and authorize the payment of the expenses of these proceedings and the necessary incidents thereof, as approved by the Court, to be paid out of the funds or assets of Respondent in the possession of the Receiver or coming into its possession

D. Reimburse such employees, from the funds of this receivership, for their actual necessary and reasonable expenses incurred while traveling on the business of this receivership.

E. Not defend or accept service of process on legal actions wherein Respondent, the Receiver, or the insured is a party defendant, commenced either prior to or subsequent to the order, without authorization of this Court; except, however, in actions where Respondent is a nominal party, as in certain foreclosure actions, and the action does not affect a claim against or adversely affect the assets of Respondent, the Receiver may file appropriate pleadings in its discretion.

F. Commence and maintain all legal actions necessary, wherever necessary, for the proper administration of this receivership proceeding.

G. Collect all debts that are economically feasible to collect which are due and owing to Respondent:

H. Deposit funds and maintain bank accounts in accordance with Section 631.221, Florida Statutes.

I. Take possession of all of Respondent's securities and certificates of deposit on deposit with the Chief Financial Officer of Florida, or any similar official of any other state, if any, and convert to cash as much as may be necessary, in its judgment, to pay the expenses of administration of this receivership or otherwise best benefit the estate.

J. Apply to this Court for further instructions in the discharge of its duties as may be necessary.

K. For purposes of this Order, the term "affiliate" shall be defined in accordance with Section 631.011(10), Florida Statutes, and shall include, but not be limited to, Northern Capital Insurance Inc., Northern Capital Insurance Management, Keystone Adjuster Inc. and InsurePro Technologies Inc.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DIRECTED:

6. Any officer, director, manager, trustee, administrator, attorney, agent, accountant, actuary, broker, employee, adjuster, independent contractor, or affiliate of the Respondent and any other person who possesses or possesses any executive authority over, or who exercises or exercised any control over, any segment of Respondent's affairs or the affairs of its affiliates is required to fully cooperate with the Receiver, pursuant to Section 631.391, Florida Statutes. Any person who fails to cooperate with the Receiver, interferes with the Receiver, or fails to allow the instruction of the Receiver, may be excluded from the building where the Respondent's offices are located at the Receiver's discretion.

7. Title to all property, real or personal, all contracts, rights of action and all books and records of Respondent, wherever located, is vested in the Receiver pursuant to Section 631.141, Florida Statutes.

8. The Receiver is granted all of the powers of the Respondent's directors, officers, and managers whose authority shall be suspended, except as such powers are re-delegated in writing by the Receiver. The Receiver has full power to direct and manage the affairs of Respondent, to hire and discharge employees, and deal with the property and business of the Respondent.

9. All attorneys employed by Respondent as of the date of the Order, within 10 days of receiving notice of this Order, are required to report to the Receiver on the name, company claim number and status of each file they are handling on behalf of the Respondent. Said report shall also include an accounting of any funds received from or on behalf of the Respondent. All attorneys employed by Respondent advised that pursuant to Sections 631.011(17) and 631.011(21), Florida Statutes, a claim based on mere possession does not create a secured claim and all attorneys employed by Respondent, pursuant to In Re the Receivership of Syndicate Two, Inc., 538 So.2d 945 (Fla. 1st DCA 1989), who are in possession of litigation files or other material, documents or records belonging to or relating to work performed by the attorney on behalf of Respondent shall be required to deliver such litigation files, material, documents or records intact and without purging to the Receiver, on request, notwithstanding any claim of a retaining lien which, if otherwise valid, shall not be extinguished by the delivery of these documents.

10. All agents, brokers or other persons having sold policies of insurance and/or collected premiums on behalf of the Respondent are required to account for and pay all premiums and commissions unearned due to cancellation of policies in the normal course of business owed to the Respondent directly to the Receiver within 30 days of demand by the Receiver or appear before this Court to show cause, if any they may have, as to why they should not be required to account to the Receiver or be held in contempt of Court for violation of the provisions of the Order. No agent, broker, premium finance company or other person shall use premium monies owed to the Respondent for refund of unearned premium or for any purpose other than payment to the Receiver.

11. Any premium finance company which has entered into a contract to finance a premium for a policy, which has been issued by the Respondent, is required to pay any premium owed to the Respondent directly to the Receiver.

12. Reinsurance premiums due to or payable by Respondent shall be remitted to, or disbursed by, the Receiver. The Receiver shall handle reinsurance losses recoverable or payable by the Respondent. All correspondence concerning reinsurance shall be between the Receiver and the reinsuring company or intermediary.

13. Upon request by the Receiver, any company providing telephonic services to the Respondent is directed to provide a reference of calls from the number presently assigned to the Respondent to any such number designated by the Receiver or perform any other services or changes necessary to the conduct of the receivership.

14. Any bank, savings and loan association, financial institution or other person which has on deposit, in its possession, custody or control any funds, accounts and any other assets of the Respondent is directed to immediately transfer title, custody and control of all such funds, accounts and other assets to the Receiver. The Receiver is authorized to change the name of such accounts and other assets, withdraw them from such bank, savings and loan association or other financial institution, or take any lesser action necessary for the proper conduct of this receivership. No bank, savings and loan association or other financial institution shall be permitted to exercise any form of set-off, alleged set-off, lien, any form of self-help whatsoever, or refuse to transfer any funds or assets to the Receiver's control unless and until obtaining an Order from this Court authorizing such action.

15. Any entity furnishing telephone, water, electric, sewage, garbage or trash removal services to Respondent is required to maintain such service and transfer any such accounts to the Receiver as of the date of the Order, unless instructed to the contrary by the Receiver.

16. Any data processing service not affiliated with Northern Capital Insurance Company, which has custody or control of any data processing information and records including but not limited to source documents, data processing cards, input tapes, all types of storage information, master tapes or any other recorded information relating to Respondent is directed to transfer custody and control of such records to the Receiver. The Receiver is authorized to compensate any such entity for the actual use of hardware and software which the Receiver finds to be necessary to this proceeding. Compensation shall be based upon the monthly rate provided for in contracts or leases with Respondent which was in effect when this proceeding was instituted, or based upon such contract as may be negotiated by the Receiver, for the actual time such equipment and software is used by the Receiver.

17. The United States Postal Service is directed to provide any information requested by the Receiver regarding Respondent and to handle future deliveries of Respondent's mail as directed by the Receiver.

18. All insurance policies, bonds or similar contracts of coverage issued by Respondent shall remain in full force and effect until they are cancelled.

19. All affiliated companies and associations are directed to make their books and records available to the Receiver, to include all records located in any premises occupied by said affiliate, whether corporate records or not, and to provide copies of any records requested by the Receiver whether or not such records are related to respondent. The Receiver has title to all policy files and other records of, relating to Respondent, whether such documents are kept in office occupied by an affiliate company or any other person, corporation, or association. The Receiver is authorized to take possession of any such records, files, and documents, and to remove them to any location in the Receiver's discretion. Any disputed records shall not be withheld from the Receiver's review, but should be safeguard and presented to this Court for review prior to removal by the Receiver.

20. The Receiver shall have complete access to and administrative control of all computer systems, information, equipment and/or records of the Respondent and its affiliates at all times including but not limited to Respondent's computer records. Each affiliate shall be given reasonable access to such records and systems for the purpose of carrying out its business operations. Any affiliate or person, disclosed or undisclosed, having custody or control of any data processing system, information, equipment and/or records including hardware, operating systems, security systems, all types of data storage systems, master tapes and any other electronic data relating to Respondent shall immediately transfer custody and control of such systems and records to the Receiver.

21. Any person, firm, corporation or other entity having notice of the Order that fails to abide by its term is directed to appear before this Court to show good cause, if any they may have, as to why they should not be held in contempt of Court for violation of the provisions of this Order.

22. Pursuant to Sections 631.041(3) and (4), Florida Statutes, all persons, firms, corporations and associations within the jurisdiction of this Court, including, but not limited to, Respondent and its officers, directors, stockholders, members, subscribers, agents and employees, are hereby enjoined and restrained: from the further transaction of the insurance business of the Respondent; from doing, doing through omission, or permitting to be done any action which might waste or dispose of the books, records and assets of Respondent; from by any means interfering with the Receiver or these proceedings; from the transfer of property and assets of Respondent without the consent of the Receiver; from the removal, concealment, or other disposition of Respondent's property, books, records, and accounts; from the commencement or prosecution of any actions against Respondent or the Receiver together with its agents or employees, the service of process and subpoenas, or the obtaining of preferences judgments, writs of attachment or garnishment or other liens; and from the making of any levy or execution against Respondent or any of its property or assets. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, the Receiver is permitted to accept and be subpoenaed for non-party production of claims files in its possession, including medical records, which may be contained therein. In such cases, the requesting party must submit an affidavit to the Receiver stating that notice of the non-party production was appropriately issued and provided to the patient and that the patient was given the opportunity to object and either did not object to the non-party production, or objected and the Court overruled the objection, in which case a copy of the Court's ruling must be attached to the affidavit. The Receiver is authorized to impose a charge for copies of such claim files pursuant to the provisions of Section 119.07 and 624.501, Florida Statutes.

23. All subsidiaries, affiliates, parent corporations, ultimate parent corporations, and any other business entity affiliated with Respondent shall fully cooperate with the Receiver in the effort to Rehabilitate Respondent.

24. All subsidiaries, affiliates, parent corporations, ultimate parent corporations, and any other business entity affiliated with Respondent having any interest in the building located at 7200 Corporate Center Drive, Suite 505, Miami, FL 33126 or any other suite (including but not limited to suites number 204, 201, 100, and 610) or facility in which Respondent may operate, agree to make available, at that location and at no charge to the Receiver or to Respondent, office space, and related facilities (telephone service, copiers, computer equipment and software, office supplies, parking, etc.) to the extent deemed necessary by the Receiver in its sole discretion.

25. All subsidiaries, affiliates, parent corporation, ultimate parent corporations, and any other business entity affiliated with Respondent having any interest in the computer equipment and software available to the Receiver at no charge to the Receiver or Respondent to the extent deemed necessary by the Receiver in its sole discretion.

26. Except for contracts of insurance, all executory contracts to which the Respondent was a party shall be cancelled and stand cancelled unless specifically adopted by the Receiver within ninety (90) days of the date of this Order or from the date of Receiver's actual knowledge of such contract, whichever is later, "Actual Knowledge" means the Receiver has in its possession the original of a written contract to which the Respondent is a party, and the Receiver has notified the vendor in writing acknowledging the existence of the contract. Any vendor, including but not limited to, any and all employees / contractors of insurer, claiming the existence of a contractual relationship with the insurer shall provide notice to the Receiver of such relationship. This notice shall include any and all documents and information regarding the terms and conditions of the contract, including a copy of the written contract between the vendor and the insurer, if any, what services or goods were provided pursuant to the contract, any current, future and/or past due amounts owing under the contract, and any supporting documentation for third party services or goods provided. Failure to provide the required information may result in vendors' contractual rights not being recognized by the Receiver. The rights of the parties to any such contracts are fixed as of the date of the Order and any cancellation under this provision shall not be treated as an anticipatory breach of such contracts.

CONTINUATION OF INVESTIGATION

27. The Receiver is authorized to conduct an investigation of Respondent and its affiliates, as defined above, to uncover and make fully available to the Court the true state of Respondent's financial affairs. In furtherance of this investigation, Respondent's parent corporations, its subsidiaries, and affiliates are required to make all books, documents, accounts, records, and affairs, which either belong to or pertain to Respondent, available for full, free and unhindered inspection and examination by the Receiver during normal business hours (9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.) Monday through Friday, from the date of the Order. The above-specified entities are required to cooperate with the Receiver to the fullest extent required by Section 631.391, Florida Statutes. Such cooperation should include, but not be limited to, the taking of oral testimony under oath of Respondent's officers, directors, managers, trustees, agents, adjusters, employees, or independent contractors of Respondent, its affiliates and any other person who possesses any executive authority over, or who exercises any control over, any segment of the affairs of Respondent in both their official, representative and individual capacities and the production of all documents that are calculated to disclose the true state of Respondent's affairs.

28. Any officer, director, manager, trustee, administrator, attorney, agent, accountant, actuary, broker, employee, adjuster, independent contractor, or affiliate of Respondent and any other person who possesses or possessed any executive authority over, or who exercises or exercised any control over, any segment of the affairs of Respondent or its affiliates shall be required to fully cooperate with the Receiver as required by Section 631.391, Florida Statutes, and as set out in the preceding paragraph. Upon receipt of a certified copy of the Order, any bank or financial institution shall be required to immediately disclose to the Receiver the existence of any accounts of Respondent and any funds contained therein and any and all documents in its possession relating to Respondent for the Receiver's inspection and copying.

29. All Sheriffs and all law enforcement of this state shall cooperate with and assist the Receiver in the implementation of this Order

30. In the event the Receiver determines that reorganization, consolidation, conversion, reinsurance, merger, or other transformation of the Respondent is appropriate, the Receiver shall prepare a plan to effect such changes and submit the plan to this Court for consideration.

31. Upon petition by the Receiver stating that further efforts to rehabilitate Respondent would be useless, this court will consider entry of an order of liquidation of Respondent.

NOTICE OF AUTOMATIC STAY

32. Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to Section 631.041(1), Florida Statutes, the filing of the Department's initial petition herein operates as an automatic stay applicable to all persons and entities, other than the Receiver, which shall be permanent and survive the entry of this order, and which prohibits:

- A. The commencement or continuation of judicial, administrative or other action or proceeding against the insurer or against its assets or any part thereof;
- B. The enforcement of judgment against the insurer or an affiliate obtained either before or after the commencement of the delinquency proceeding;
- C. Any act to obtain possession of property of the insurer;
- D. Any act to create, perfect or enforce a lien against property of the insurer, except a secured claim as defined in Section 631.011(21), Florida Statutes;

E. Any action to collect, assess or recover a claim against the insurer, except claims as provided for under Chapter 631;

F. The set-off or offset of any debt owing to the insurer except offsets as provided in Section 631.281, Florida Statutes.

33. This Court retains jurisdiction of this cause for the purpose of granting such other and further relief as from time to time shall be deemed appropriate.
