RETIREMENT PLAYBOOK

IRS contribution limits to 457b and 403b do not compete. Begin contributing to both, today!

As a University employee, you have options. The Florida Deferred Compensation Plan is a 457b retirement plan—available to all University employees. The chart below shows how making contributions to both 457b and a voluntary 403b account can dramatically boost your retirement savings. Participants who maximize both their 457b and voluntary 403b accounts are better prepared to meet their retirement savings goals.

Key Benefits of the Plan

- Easy to understand fee structure and low fund expense fees
- Excellent investment options, including Fixed Accounts, Target Date Funds, numerous Mutual Funds, and a Self-Directed Brokerage Account
- Penalty-free account modification, such as contribution change, investment reallocation, and Investment Provider addition/replacement
- 457b Pre-Tax and 457b Roth payroll contributions are allowed
- Consolidate other eligible retirement accounts
- Dedicated customer service and professional investment performance oversight from the Bureau of Deferred Compensation and the Plan's Investment Providers
- Immediate vesting
- 457b Pre-Tax Payroll Contributions:
  - Payroll contributions that lower taxable income
  - Distributions taxed as income
  - Penalty-free withdrawals after 31 days of separation from employment
- 457b Roth Payroll Contributions:
  - Post-tax payroll contributions
  - Qualified distributions are not included in gross income
  - 457b Roth qualified distribution rules apply

PLAY TO WIN!

Participate in the 457b, even if you participate in the 403b tax sheltered annuity.

This chart is for illustrative purposes only and is not meant to represent the performance of any specific investment option. The scenario assumes a 7% annual rate of return, a maximized Regular Contribution for the first 20 years, and a maximized Ages 50+ Contribution for the remaining 10 years for both the 403b and the 457b. Rates of return will vary.

Wondering Which 457b Payroll Contribution Type is Right for You?

It's as easy as A, B, C.

Avery

Option A: 457b Pre-Tax payroll contributions:

- Wants to continue making payroll contributions that lower current taxable income.
- Paying income taxes on distributions of principal and interest during retirement is not concerning.
- Likes knowing part of what would have been paid in taxes, now, is invested as a contribution.

Option B: 457b Roth (post-tax) payroll contributions:

- Lowering current taxable income is not top priority.
- Expects similar or higher tax rates at retirement, so paying taxes now means tax-free interest (on qualified distributions) at retirement.
- Willing to continue making the same contribution, even though there is not a current tax benefit; or comfortable with reducing contributions, so the net effect on their paycheck remains similar.

Bailey

Option C: Combination of 457b Pre-Tax and 457b Roth (post-tax) payroll contributions:

- Wants the best of both worlds: Pre-Tax payroll contributions that lower taxable income now and Roth payroll contributions that are taxed now but earn tax-free interest (on qualified distributions).
- Likes flexibility in taxation of distributions, which having both deferral types at retirement offers.
- Considers personal ability to make payroll contributions to the Plan and how each deferral type impacts their paycheck.

The type of payroll contribution you make to the Florida Deferred Compensation Plan depends on you. Each Investment Provider has tools to help customize your contributions to meet your specific retirement goals.

Bridge the Gap

Your employer sponsored retirement plan and Social Security are likely to only provide about 78% income replacement during retirement. That leaves a 22% gap in income replacement. The Florida Deferred Compensation Plan is available to help bridge the savings gap.
