

Session Question ID	Webinar Question	Florida PALM Response
1	Is there a way to access all training without People First login credentials (for example: contractors working on Florida PALM)	Yes, if you don't have People First credentials, we can create an external learner account for you to access the training. If an external learner account is needed, please contact your Agency Liaison and Readiness Coordinator for assistance.