

Property Insurance Rates

Dear friends,

Recently, I sent a letter to Florida Insurance Commissioner Kevin McCarty to express my concerns about the cost of property insurance in Florida and to ask, 'Why have rates not come down?'

I remain very concerned that property insurance companies are not passing along the reinsurance cost savings they are experiencing to Florida homeowners. Therefore, I have requested that he analyze Florida's insurance companies to ensure they are treating Floridians fairly.

I am well aware of the need for insurers to carry adequate reinsurance and that the Florida Statutes allow insurers to purchase enough reinsurance to cover a 1 in 250 year storm. Commissioner McCarty has told me, however, that companies have rarely if ever purchased reinsurance to cover a 1 in 250 year storm.

I am asking that he oversee an analysis that provides Floridians an accurate representation of how much insurers are saving, how they are utilizing these savings and how customers are benefiting. My request is not suggesting insurers should put themselves at any greater risk or not acquire the appropriate level of reinsurance. Our goal should be to ensure rates are fair and companies are sound. Such an analysis will require a significant review of data but I believe that Floridians are due such an assessment.

US Rep. Ross Files Bill To Help Property Owners Finance Mitigation Efforts

Florida's U.S. House of Representatives member Dennis Ross introduced a bill (H.R. 3298) establishing Disaster Savings Accounts (DSA) which can be used by eligible individuals to finance structural mitigation efforts. If passed by Congress and enacted in to law the legislation will be known as the Disaster Savings Accounts Act of 2013.

The bill creates a new section within the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 detailing DSAs and the permitted use of tax-deferred dollars to permit eligible individuals to deduct from gross income, annual amounts up to $5,000 that have been set aside in a tax-deferred account for use toward disaster mitigation expenses. An eligible individual is one who owns property, upon which a structure sits, that is also insured by a policy traditionally required by a mortgage-holding lender.

The bill also allows a DSA to be established under the management of a "Trustee," which can be a bank, insurance company or other entity that can demonstrate proper management and distribution of funds as detailed by the act. It further lists qualified mitigation expenses allowed for distribution of funds from a DSA, including an activity further specified by federal regulation as appropriate in mitigating risks of future hazards (including earthquake, flood, hail, hurricane, lightening, power outage, tornado and wildfire) and any other natural disaster. The legislation further establishes that any amount contributed over $5,000 shall be included in the gross income of the account holder for tax-filing purposes; exempts remaining DSA funds that rollover into the following year and includes a 20% penalty tax on funds withdrawn from a DSA and used for purposes other than disaster mitigation expenses.

Finally, the bill allows a Cost-Of-Living adjustment to the $5,000 annual cap on pre-tax DSA contributions. The bill has already been referred to the House Committee on Ways and Means.

The 2014 Annual Title Administrative Surcharge is Coming Up

Subsection 624.501(27)(e)2, Florida Statutes, requires any title insurance agency licensed in Florida on January 1 of each year to remit an administrative surcharge of $200 to the Florida Department of Financial Services. Therefore, we are reminding all title agencies that the 2014 administrative surcharge due date will soon be approaching. Any title insurance agency licensed in Florida on January 1, 2014, will be emailed a reminder a few days afterward to the agency's email address on file with the Department. To ensure you receive the invoice and avoid failing to pay by the January 30 due date, please log in to the MyProfile account for your title agency and make sure the correct email address is on file. While doing so, we also recommend you do the same for your individual MyProfile account. Failure to pay the surcharge on or before January 30 will result in administrative action and/or a fine, in addition to the original surcharge. Payment can be made securely online via the title agency's MyProfile account and paper checks are not accepted.

Still Haven't Created Your MyProfile Account? It's Quick and Easy!

The Department communicates with its licensees, appointing entities, and education providers via email and their secure MyProfile account on our website. We continue to receive inquiries from some of our customers that they cannot access their MyProfile account. Typically, they received an email from the Department to go check their MyProfile account for details about their license, appointment, or continuing education requirement and can't log in when they try. They try different usernames and passwords but nothing works. It seems like the system is broken and not letting them in. The real problem: they never created an account.

You must create your MyProfile account(s) with a username and password before you can access your account. At the same time, you will also set up some security questions and answers so you can easily retrieve your username or password in the event you forget either in the future. You will also verify your contact information on file. We strongly encourage you to use your actual email address as that is how we will notify you of any important information to go check in your MyProfile account. After the new MyProfile account information has been entered, the system automatically transfers your information on file into your new account.

An interactive tutorial to assist you with creating an account and retrieving a forgotten username or password is located at <http://www.MyFloridaCFO.com/Division/Agents/Licensure/myProfileHelp/MyProfile.htm>.

Are You Compliant with Your CE or Not?

If you have ever felt confused about what it means to be continuing education (CE) compliant, you are not alone. That's why we are continuously finding and implementing ways to help you with this. To be CE compliant requires more than just taking CE courses. Below are a few often overlooked suggestions for remaining CE compliant.

- CE requirements change. You should regularly review your CE status through your MyProfile account. Your total hours have specific allocation requirements that must be met. Be sure to take all the right categories of CE courses.
- Check for late hours. Hours taken after your due date will still post on your compliance evaluation screen (however they will show as "Late"). Though your hours requirement may have been met, you're still delinquent for being late in completing your CE hours. You will then have the option of paying a $250 fine, in addition to completing any required hours within a specified time, to keep from losing your appointments.
- Check past evaluation periods. Always check previous compliance periods to make sure you are not delinquent for a prior period. Be sure to click on VIEW ENFORCEMENT NOTICE just below the Not Compliant text to check for any outstanding fines.
- Check your transcript. The same course cannot be taken with the same provider within a three-year period and receive credit. This is noted on your transcript as a duplicate course. You will need to take a different course to meet your CE requirement.

We wish you success in completing your hours to remain knowledgeable in an ever-changing insurance market. And remember, your CE compliance date is your DUE date, not your DO date.

How to Search for Approved CE Courses

Looking for continuing education (CE) courses to be sure you get all your hours completed? Our online course search can easily help you by listing those courses approved by the Department.

1. Go to our website at www.MyFloridaCFO.com/Division/Agents.
2. Click on MyProfile on the left panel and log in to your account.
3. Once in your MyProfile inbox, click on Locate at the top left. Then click on Future Course Offerings.
4. Select the Course Authority for the type of license held or course you need to take.
5. You can also make other choices, like Study Method and Location, to narrow your search results.
6. If you click on Perform an Advanced Search, you will have additional options to narrow your search results, such as Course Date and Course Level.

Because many factors may affect your continuing education requirement (e.g. licenses held, number of years licensed, etc.), we encourage you to periodically check your MyProfile account to determine your individual continuing education compliance requirements and status. You will also be able to find more approved CE courses after logging in to your MyProfile account versus the public search option, which limits the results to the first 100 course offerings.

Education Providers: Stay Out of the Penalty Box

If you are an approved provider, the Department issued you a "jersey number" also known as your approved provider ID number. However, do you know the rules that you should follow to stay in the game and out of the penalty box?

Since the department must maintain the standard of approving fit and trustworthy providers you may find yourself sidelined by not following the requirements of the Florida Insurance Code. Recently we've had to make some calls due to violations of our code. Below are some of the areas:

- Late course offering submittal.
 - The deadline for course offering submittals is 30 days prior to the first day of the class or seminar and no more than one year in advance.
- Advertising a course as approved or soliciting attendance for any course that has not yet been approved.
- Instruction of a class by an unapproved instructor.
- Failure to maintain course completion and attendance records for five years following the completion date of each course offering.
- Falsification of any document, form, outline or information in connection with any course.
- Late roster submittal.
 - The deadline for roster submittals is 20 days after the course completion date.

Are you playing by the rules?

These are only a few. For more details read the continuing education rule found in chapter 69B-228, F.A.C., and the pre-licensing rule found in chapter 69B-227, F.A.C.

You play a critical part in educating our licensees on the ethical and legal requirements of their licenses. Setting a good example of compliance will keep you in the game and out of the penalty box.

Any questions regarding this may be sent to Education@MyFloridaCFO.com.

Becoming an Approved Instructor

Qualified instructors are a critical component of the continuing education program for insurance representatives in the state of Florida. Classroom-based courses can only be taught by approved instructors. With nearly 20,000 total courses offered in a calendar year, that makes for a high demand of approved instructors.

To be an effective continuing education instructor you must possess a good balance of knowledge and experience in the subject matter, along with skills in instructing adult professionals. Additionally, you must prove to be fit and trustworthy to hold this position pursuant to the Florida Insurance Code.

For anyone who may have considered becoming an approved instructor, below are the nuts and bolts of the application process.

How to Apply:

Instructor applications must be submitted electronically on Form DFS-H2-398 via the Department's Education Database at https://dice.fldfs.com/public/pb_index.aspx. Instructors may apply independently or under an approved provider.

How to Qualify:

In order to qualify, an applicant must meet any two of the following six criteria:

1. A minimum of five years of full-time working experience in the last ten years in the subject matter being taught.
2. Completion of a 40-hour training course on instructing adults.
3. A minimum of 40 hours of teaching experience in the last two years.
4. A professional designation from a recognized insurance industry association in the line of business of the subject being taught.
5. A degree from an accredited school in the subject matter being taught.
6. Membership in the Florida Bar Association with a minimum of two years of insurance litigation.

The applicant must state which qualifications he/she meets on the application and provide a resume with details supporting their qualifications.

Tips on writing an effective resume for an instructor application:

- Write your resume to speak to the requirements of the authority for which you are applying.
- Include relevant employment history showing the start and end date, employer name and specific job duties demonstrating experience in the subject matter.
- Include the name and issuing entity for any professional insurance designations you hold.
- Include any college-level degrees you've earned and are relevant to the subject matter. In addition, include the name of the issuing school.
- Provide a journal of your most recent 40 hours of teaching experience that includes: dates, location, subject, and total teaching time. Only group setting instruction qualifies.
- Provide a proof of completion of a 40-hour training course on instructing adults.
- Provide documentation of Florida Bar Association membership and two years of insurance litigation in the employment history.

A Few Reminders:

- The instructor is not approved until a confirmation email is received from the Department.
- Resumes for instructor applications should be submitted to Education@MyFloridaCFO.com.

Education Providers: Have you joined us for a conference call?

The Education Unit regularly holds a conference call available to all approved education providers every other month. This 30-minute call is usually conducted on the second Tuesday of odd numbered months and includes 10 minutes of Q&A from the providers.

We have received numerous positive comments regarding the call. Some of the benefits of participating in a conference call are:

- Clarification of the Florida Administrative Code pertaining to education requirements.
- First-hand information on upcoming changes.
- Opportunity to ask live questions to the Department's Education staff.
- Hear what other providers are asking relating to education requirements.
- Tips for quicker processing of applications for education providers.

Our next conference call, scheduled for Tuesday, November 12, 2013 at 2:00pm EST, marks the beginning of our third year of holding them. Our topics of discussion will include: updates on crediting completed 5-hour Law and Ethics update courses to CE records; approval and crediting of specific courses including Senior Suitability, Premium Discount and Wind Mitigation, Ethics, and Adjuster Law and Policy; exam content outline changes; revised study manuals; and other topics of interest.

Recorded copies or prior conference calls along with Q&A may be found on our website under the Providers of CE & Pre-licensing section.

We hope to have you join us in the future. Education providers may find more information about the conference call by logging in to your MyProfile account and viewing the notifications in your In-box.

Guidelines for Illegal Inducements and Advertising Gifts

This is an area where there is apparently significant confusion. Hopefully, these guidelines will help to alleviate that confusion in the future.

What is an inducement?

An inducement is the promise by a licensee to give something of value to a prospect in exchange for the prospect doing something beneficial for the licensee that could or does result in the sale of an insurance product.

When is an inducement illegal?

- When a portion of the licensee's commission is promised to the prospect in return for the purchase of an insurance product or service and it does not comply with the rebating statutes. Remember, rebating is legal as long as it is done properly, which is seldom the case. When it is not, it is a form of an illegal inducement. One of the conditions of a legal rebate is approval by the insurer, which rarely happens.
- When the licensee promises to give the consumer anything of value in exchange for personal financial information or a one on one meeting where this type of information is secured for purposes of proposing an insurance product or service. This is not rebating, it is another form of an illegal inducement.
- When a licensee picks up the expenses of a third party because that party refers business to the licensee that results in an insurance transaction. These expenses include, but are not limited to: gas cards, equipment leases, rental fees, advertising costs, providing food or refreshments at seminars or open houses of the third party, etc.

See Sections [626.572 and 626.9541\(1\)\(h\), Florida Statutes]

Advertising Gifts

The purpose of an advertising gift is to promote the licensee's business by placing the name of the licensee or their business name in front of customers or prospects by giving away articles of merchandise with their name on it without any conditions having to be met. Examples would be calendars, golf balls, coffee mugs, pens, shirts etc. as long as the value of the individual gift does not exceed $25.00. A gift card is not considered to be an article of merchandise and therefore not an acceptable advertising gift even if it does contain the licensee's name or business name on it. However, a gift meeting the definition of an advertising gift cannot be used to induce someone to provide detailed financial and other personal information.

See Section [626.9541\(1\)\(m\), Florida Statutes]

Referral Fees

A gift, gift card, or referral fee in any amount may be given by the licensee for a referral as long as the giving of the gift, gift card or referral fee is not conditioned upon the referral transforming into the sale of an insurance product or service.

See Section [626.112\(8\), Florida Statutes]

Reporting of Actions - Criminal, Administrative, and Other

Subsection 626.451(7), F.S., requires each licensee to advise the Department within 30 days after having been found guilty of or having pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to a felony or a crime punishable by imprisonment of one year or more under the laws of the United States, any state of the United States, or any other country, without regard to whether a judgment of conviction has been entered by the court having jurisdiction of such cases.

Section 626.536, F.S., requires each licensee (including insurance agencies) to submit to the Department a copy of the order, consent order, or other relevant legal documents within 30 days after the final disposition of any administrative action taken against the licensee by a governmental agency or other regulatory agency in this or any other state or jurisdiction relating to the business of insurance, the sale of securities, or activity involving fraud, dishonesty, trustworthiness, or breach of a fiduciary duty.

Subsection 626.6215(6), F.S., requires agencies and their officers to advise the Department within 30 days after an individual licensee's violation is known or should have been known by one or more of the partners, officers, or managers acting on behalf of the agency. Actions taken against a license or registration for violations of state or federal securities or commodities law, such as an action taken by FINRA, are an example. Failure to do so could result in administrative action against the license(s) of the agency and/or majority owner, officer, partner, manager, director, or other person who manages or controls the insurance agency.

Actions may be reported via the NIPR's Attachment Warehouse, which may also satisfy reporting requirements for other states you are licensed in. You may also mail the appropriate documents to us at:

It was also alleged that after the Notice of Temporary Suspension, the subject participated in the pickup of another defendant, which he was not authorized to do under the suspension order.

Disposition: License revoked and he is permanently ineligible for licensure as a bail bond agent.

Case: An investigation of a title agent, also owner of the title agency, alleged she blatantly bounced checks at closing and failed to disburse funds she collected for several consumers totaling nearly $10,000. Compounding matters, these funds were earmarked for the consumers' property taxes and legal fees.

Disposition: License revoked.

Case: An investigation of a nonresident personal lines agent alleged that he failed to notify the Department of an administrative action against him taken by another state.

Disposition: License suspended for 9 months.

Case: An investigation of a life agent alleged he defrauded an insurance company when he submitted a life insurance application containing numerous misrepresentations. Not only did he submit a life insurance application with forged signatures of a consumer he never met, but he even brazenly used white out to submit a second life insurance application with manipulated dates.

Disposition: License suspended for four months and placed on probation for six months when reinstated.

Case: An investigation of a life, health, and general lines agent was opened when the Department received a complaint from a former employee that reported he was allowing unlicensed employees to transact insurance. A visit to his agency, revealed he was not present, and the office was being run by a licensed customer representative and an unlicensed individual. An agency inspection further revealed that the unlicensed individual was submitting endorsements, and contacting prospective insureds to solicit policies.
