IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE THE FOLLOWING PROMOTION

CONGRATULATIONS TO CAPTAIN FRANK BRIGANTI

Frank Briganti has been promoted to Captain of the Bureau of Insurance Fraud; South Central Region. Captain Briganti assumes his appointment today, Friday, January 25, 2019.

Frank Briganti began his law enforcement career in January 1984, for the Hasbrouck Heights Police Department in New Jersey. He then moved to Florida and worked for over 25 years with the Boynton Beach Police Department. He was a detective in the Narcotics Division, a Sergeant over the road patrol and detective division and a Lieutenant over Uniformed Services, Internal Affairs and Accreditation. He retired from the Boynton Beach PD as a Major. Frank was also the SWAT commander for a team of over 20 men, supervisor for the K-9 Unit and community outreach as well as responsible for policy making.

Frank started with the Division as a Detective in the Workers Compensation Fraud - West Palm Beach Office in February 2014. He was promoted to Lead Detective in March 2016. In April 2017, Frank was promoted to Lieutenant of the Bureau of Insurance Fraud: Fort Lauderdale Field Office and later reassigned to the West Palm Beach Field Office in March 2018.

We are pleased to recognize Captain Briganti's hard work and look forward to his continued growth into greater responsibilities.
