

DIVISION OF INVESTIGATIVE & FORENSIC SERVICES IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE THE
FOLLOWING PROMOTION

CONGRATULATIONS TO
CIA II Daniela Blanquicett

The Division of Investigative and Forensic Services (DIFS) is proud to announce the promotion of Daniela Blanquicett to CIA II, effective February 17, 2023.

Ms. Blanquicett began her career at the federal level in 2021, where she was assigned multi-agency contracts across various states throughout the country. She was hired by the Division in January 2022, working as a CIA I out of the Orlando field office and assigned to the Bureau of Insurance Fraud. Her coworkers describe her as a quick learner who welcomes the opportunity to deploy all available resources when fulfilling her assigned analytical requests.

Ms. Blanquicett graduated with a Master's degree from Florida International University and is in the process of accepting offers for Doctoral Programs.

We are pleased to recognize Ms.
Blanquicett's hard work and look forward to her continued growth in her new role.
