

DIVISION OF INVESTIGATIVE & FORENSIC SERVICES

ANNOUNCES THE RETIREMENT OF:

Bureau of Fire, Arson & Explosives Investigations Detective John Young

We are proud to announce the retirement of Detective John Young. Detective Young has over 26 years of law enforcement experience. John began his career with the Lafayette County Sheriff's Office (LCSO) in 1993, as a patrol deputy. During his time with the LCSO, John rose to the rank of administrative captain where he oversaw patrol, investigative, corrections and communications divisions. John served 13 years with the LCSO before leaving to further his law enforcement career.

In May of 2007, John began his career as a detective with the Division assigned to the Bureau of Fire, Arson and Explosives Investigations in the Tallahassee Field Office. During his tenure with the Division, John served as a fire and explosion detective working in the thirteen counties of the North Region, as an Bomb Technician assigned to the North Region EOD Unit as well as the Big Bend Regional Bomb Squad. John was also a member of the Third Circuit Law Enforcement Association.

DIFS thanks Detective John Young for his dedication and efforts in the fight against arson.
