

DIVISION OF INVESTIGATIVE & FORENSIC SERVICES

ANNOUNCES THE RETIREMENT OF:

Bureau of Workers' Compensation Fraud Detective Vince Montgomery

We are pleased to announce the retirement of Detective Vince Montgomery. Detective Montgomery has over 35 years of law enforcement experience. Vince began his career with the United States Air Force, Combat Security Police in 1984. Vince joined the Orange County Sheriff's Office, in 1986, as a corrections officer while serving in the U.S. Air Force Reserves. In 1989, Vince joined the Orlando Police Department as a law enforcement officer. During his time with the Orlando Police Department, Vince rose to the rank of master police officer serving 11 years in patrol as an assistant squad leader and 10 years as an economic crimes investigator.

In January of 2012, Vince began his career as a detective with the Division assigned to the Bureau of Workers' Compensation Fraud in Orlando. During his tenure with the Division, Vince served as a lead detective and field training officer.

Division of Investigative Forensic Services thanks Detective Vince Montgomery for his dedication and efforts in the fight against workers' compensation fraud.
