

DIFS

DIVISION OF INVESTIGATIVE & FORENSIC SERVICES

IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE THE
FOLLOWING PROMOTION

CONGRATULATIONS TO Lieutenant Christopher “Chris” Scovotto

Lieutenant Chris Scovotto began his law enforcement career in 1998 as a duty officer with the Bureau of Fire, Arson and Explosives Investigations. He received his law enforcement certification in March of 2000 and was hired as a detective assigned to the BFAEI Orlando Field Office. Chris later accepted a transfer to the Tallahassee Field Office where he has remained since 2003.

In 2015, Lieutenant Scovotto successfully completed the Federal Bureau of Investigation’s Hazardous Devices School and is the current Assistant Bomb Squad Commander for the Division. Over his 21 year career, Chris has served as a field training officer, lead detective, secondary K9 handler, CVSA operator, and high liability instructor. Lieutenant Scovotto is currently responsible for delivering Post Blast Investigations training to countless public safety professionals from all over the state of Florida.

Lieutenant Chris Scovotto holds a Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of North Alabama and a Master’s Degree in Criminal Justice from Florida State University.

We are pleased to recognize Lieutenant Scovotto’s hard work and look forward to his continued growth into greater responsibilities.
