

ANNOUNCES THE RETIREMENT OF:

Crime Intelligence Analyst II Luvenia Hill

We are pleased to announce the retirement of Crime Intelligence Analyst II Luvenia Hill. Luvenia began her career the Division of State Fire Marshal, and later with the Division of Investigative and Forensic Services in 1981 in Tallahassee. She served as a secretary and was promoted to Criminal Intelligence Analyst in 1986.

During her tenure at DFS, Luvenia served as the State Fire Marshal's dispatch supervisor and was instrumental in the ACISS reporting system as an administrator managing the information within the system. Luvenia was also responsible for entry into the BATS Data System, served as the FCIC/NCIC Agency TAC and was the FDLE Regional Workgroup Chairman. Her duties were wide ranging and included: training new ACISS Users; ensuring compliance and conducting audits for CJIS and DAVID; seal/expunge orders; and other provided other related crime analyst duties.

Luvenia was nominated for and received department awards in the areas of "Personal Initiative", "Team Performance" and "Davis Productivity Award". Her commitment to the department is quite evident as shown by her accomplishments and the many relationships she has developed over the years.

Luvenia has always been very active in her church and family. Now she will have time to do more with both.

Luvenia, thank you so much for your willingness to serve the State of Florida and the Department. The relationships you have built and the people you have served are truly a testimony to who you are. You will be dearly missed!

DIFS thanks Luvenia for her dedication, service, and effort in the fight against fire and arson.
