

DIVISION OF INVESTIGATIVE & FORENSIC SERVICES

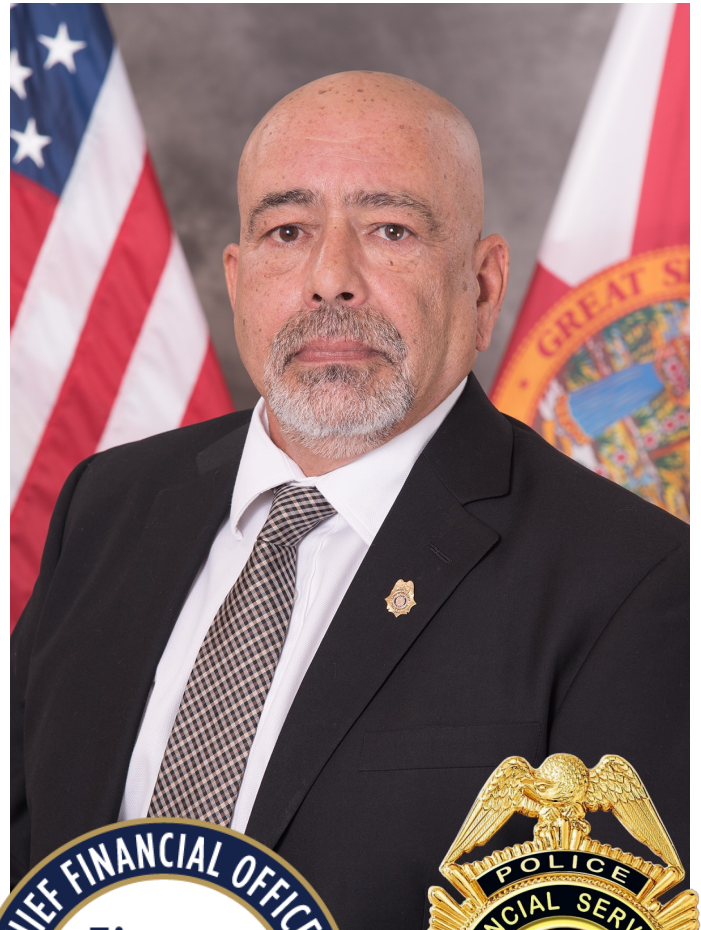

ANNOUNCES THE RETIREMENT OF:

Orlando BFAEI Detective Bill Newman

We are pleased to announce the retirement of Detective Bill Newman. Bill began his law enforcement career in 1982 with the Derry Police Department in New Hampshire. After his 23 year service, he retired from Derry PD as a Lieutenant over Investigations.

Bill began his service with the Bureau of Fire, Arson, and Explosives (BFAEI) in October of 2006 in the Orlando Field Office. Then transferring in 2008 to the Daytona Beach Office where he has been since.

Bill has served with BFAEI as a Detective, Bureau PIO, and Meth lab crime scene trainer. He has also been a very valuable member of several hurricane response teams over the years.

DIFS thanks Detective Bill Newman for his dedication and efforts in the fight against arson.
