

DIVISION OF INVESTIGATIVE & FORENSIC SERVICES

ANNOUNCES THE RETIREMENT OF:

BFAEI Detective Tom White

We are pleased to announce the retirement of Detective Tom White. Tom has over 43 years of law enforcement experience. After serving 4 years and 7 months in the United States Marine Corps, Tom began his law enforcement career with the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office in 1975.

During his tenure with the sheriff's office, Tom spent 12 years in uniformed patrol serving as a Field Training Officer and on the following specialty teams; SWAT, Rescue/Recovery Dive Unit and the Critical Incident Stress Management team.

Tom's assignments also included the Narcotics Unit, the Street Crime Unit, and the Intelligence Unit.

In January of 2014, Tom began his career with the Division in the Bureau of Fire, Arson & Explosives Investigations in Jacksonville, where he remained until retirement.

DIFS thanks Detective Tom White for his dedication and efforts in the fight against arson.
